

Alliance Partner Application

 DIAMOND  * GOLD *  SILVER ***

Thank you for your interest in the Independent Trustee Alliance! The ITA is a professional association founded by Independent (non-corporate) Trustees serving families and family offices. ITA members are dedicated to providing support and continuing education for members of this rising profession and welcome those who are serving as a trustee for their family and those professionals involved in estate planning who seek alliances with others to better serve their clients. All are welcome!

Our Alliance Partner Program allows companies to show their commitment to this movement by providing membership in the ITA for their employees and clients, being featured on the ITA website and marketing material and being spotlighted to ITA membership

Please return the completed application to either the eMail or physical address below along with the dues payment or contact us to arrange electronic payment.

ITA ALLIANCE PARTNER TERMS

This agreement is annually renewable at the annual dues amount in effect at the time of renewal.

Membership granted to employees, clients, customers and friends is at the Associate level.

An individual member may apply for Certification via an individual membership and paying the certification fee. If the member changes employer or has their membership rescinded by their employer, the member will be responsible for paying annual dues as well as re-certification fees as applicable.

Features and benefits may from time to time be modified. Alliance partners will be notified in writing of such changes before such changes are implemented.

The memberships granted to employees, clients, customers and friends may be changed by the Alliance Partner during the term of this agreement but at no time may the number of memberships exceed the maximum for the Alliance Partner's level of membership (Diamond, Gold, Silver).

It is the Alliance Partner's responsibility to provide an electronic copy of their company logo to the Independent Trustee Alliance for use under this agreement.
